The Annual Clinical Vignette
Competition

Thursday, September 10, 2015
4:30pm

Reception to follow in SSOM cafeteria 120
Clinical vignettes and case reports represent the oldest and most familiar form of medical communication, and many original observations are first presented in this format.

Developing and presenting a clinical vignette is a great way to research and fully understand interesting or challenging patient problems. It also gives the presenter an opportunity to share the excitement of medicine with other physicians. The clinical vignette competition at Loyola is a forum for our residents and students to present to their peers in a supportive atmosphere.

The winner of this competition will represent Loyola University Medical Center at the regional ACP conference hosted by Northwestern at the UIC Student Center on October 21, 2015.
